RIDDLE NEW ORLEANS CARD

CHANGE IN TRACK CONDITIONS RESPONSIBLE FOR MANY WITHDRAWALS FROM RACES.

Marshon and El Pato Are Day's Winning Favorites Over Muddy Track at the Fair Grounds-Weather Fine and Big Crowd Visits Track.

New Orleans, La., February 5.—Today's racing card was riddled by withdrawals due to the changed track conditions as a result of rain which fell steadily last night. The weather during the aftermon was summerlike and the usual large crowd was in attendance. Some of the races were keenly contested. The talent was in poor form though, and only managed to land on two of the winners. Surprises attended the running of the first, second, third and fifth races. The mile and a quarter dash was the outstanding offering of the bordinary card. There were only four starters and Marshon was returned a handy winner over Billie Baker and Frog. Marshon was at a prohibitive price. El Pato was the other favorite that scored. His saccess came in the closing dash, in which he barely managed to outlast Autumn. The latter fell lame at a critical period and outled up in a bad way.

Several "good things" were put over during the afterneon and their connections are said to have profited handsomely. W. C. West, winner of the opening dash, was one of them. He showed an improved performance and led for the entire trip. Pretty bale spreadeagled her opposition in the second and won with jockey Pool looking back at the others stringgling for second money. Bertodano, under a vigorous ride, just managed to outstay the badly handled Tillie's Nightmare in the third. Hughie McCarren's Jacob Bunn came with a cyclonic rush through the stretch to land the purse in the fifth over Mallard and Joe D. Love Day was probably best in the race, but Goose was forced to take him the purse of an ouncement to the contrary, caused Judge Murphy to make the following statement this afternoon: "Several weeks ago I made formal amouncement that we would close on the night of February 16. Since then persistent rumors of an extension of the meeting.

PROVISIONS OF INDIANA RACING BILL.

Indianapolis, Ind., February 5.—Pari-mutuel betting at race tracks will be legalized in the state of Indiana if a bill presented to the senate yesterday by Senator Hirsch becomes a law. Thomas E. Knotts of Gary and A. F. Knotts of Hammond, former mayors, are among the backers of the bill and they say it also has the support of the breeders of the state, the county fair associations, the Sheriff's Association end the State Hotel-Keepers' Association. The bill would create a state racing commission, which would have full authority over all horse races and which would license and control such races.

horse races and which would license and control such races.

The members of the first commission are named in the bill, and would be Charles R. Duffin, Terre Haute; Charles H. Anthony, Muneie, and Steeling R. Holt, Indianapolis, all of whom are well-known horsemen, When any of the members retire the governor would appoint his successor. The bill provides that the members of the commission receive a salary of not more than $600 a year, to be paid out of the money received by the commission for issuing licenses. A secretary would be appointed, who would receive $1,200 a year.

The bill provides that the commission may charge a fee of from $1 to $50 a day for issuing permits for race meetings, the fee to be at the discretion of the board, according to the size of the meeting, its patronage, etc.

The bill also provides that if the commission refuses to issue a license for any race meeting, or revoke any license, it shall state its reasons publicly and spread them on its minute books. The bill carries a clause providing a fine for anyone who is guilty of making any bets on the race tracks in any other manner than that prescribed by the bill.

SEES GOOD OUTLOOK IN THE WEST.

Lexington, Ky., February 5.—Robert Kay, Garneau, Investment and Object, in the stable of P. M. Civill, arrived here today from New Orleans in charge of trainer John Stockler, who also took up Star Actress, Mockery and Buck Keenon, which have been running out since last fall.

J. O. Keene arrived home today after a visit to New Orleans, Juarez, San Francisco and Reno. He says the outlook for racing in the west is good.

JOHN LOWE'S HORSES IN GOOD FORM.

Prominent Trainer Saddles One Winner for Himself and Another for Dr. Macias at Juarez.

and Another for Dr. Macias at Juarez.

El Paso, Tex., February 5.—Conditions were fairly pleasant at Juarez today. The fields were big and unwieldy, for the most part, and every race carried selling conditions. The talent started the day auspiciously when Bad Prospect won the opening dash. He led all the way and was followed to the finish by Augustus Heinze and Cloud Chief, the other choices.

Art Rick made a sensational end rush to win the second from the well-backed Miss Chancer, an English-bred filly that P. T. Chium brought to this country last fail. Miss Chancer land what looked like a winning lead in the stretch, but tired right at the end as if a trifle short.

The third, a race for three-year-olds, was attended by a stirring finish between the three choices, Type, Langhorne and Carrie Orne. The first named came with a great rush right at the end and scored by a half length, while Langhorne beat the favorite, Carrie Orne for second money by a neck.

John Lowe, who has been having marked success of late, saddled the winner of the fourth race in Dr. R. Macias' Theodorita. Jockey Stearns brought her up at the finish with a great rush along the inner rail. Claribel was a receding favorite for the race and made the pace into the stretch, then threed so badly that she was unplaced.

The fifth resolved itself into a duel between the two choices, Lofty Heywood and Goldfinn, and the former won by nearly a length, being aided to victory by T. Rice's ability in the saddle. John Lowe scored his second success of the afternoon when his own horse, The Cinder, with Loftus up, won the closing dash in a hard drive with Hester.

The contract that Wade McLemore, Texas horseman, had on jockey Groth has expired. The latter did not renew it and is now riding as a free lance. He has been under contract to Mr. McLemore for the past five years.

It is expected that the stewards will give their decision on the "ringing" case tomorrow.

A high wind blew again today.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

London hears that Germany is making extensive preparations for the blockade of England that has been declared to go into effect on February 18. A dispatch from Amsterdam stated that several sutmarines had arrived at Zeebrugge, the naval base on the Relgian coast. It is expected that these will be used to attack British transports and merchant ships. The British admiralty is planning to meet Germany's threatened move. Hostillties against Serbia have been resumed by the Austrians, according to reliable reports. One hundred thousand Germans are hurling themselves in headlong rushes against the Russian earthworks west of Warsaw, it was officially announced at Petrograd. PASSING OF THE PLUNGER.

Speaking of Pittsburgh Phil reminds one that big betting on horse races has been abolished. Pittsburgh Phil was the leader in this respect and was about the only one to quit with a fortune. Dave Johnson, who won as much as $50,000 in one day at Belmont Park in 1907, died practically "broke," The late John W. Gates, after a tremendous battle with the bookmakers in the golden days of the turf, admitted when he closed operations that he had enjoyed an even break. Joe Yeager and Riley Grannan, who suddenly became rich, lost everything in due time. John A. Drake, who shared in the $500,000 killing on Royal Flush in England, finally left the game, declaring that he could not beat it. Jess Lewisohn, E. R. Thomas and E. E. Smathers, who plunged for the limit, burned up thousands of dollars in vain attempts to outguess the price makers.

One of the assertions of the reformers who helped wipe out the bet, ing rings at the New York tracks was that the bookmakers "got all the money." But nowadays it is hard to name more than half a dozen former layers who are reputed to be wealthy. Many of the old guard who handled the chalk and slates have been driven to the wall. Some of them have gone into other lines of business. Others are ranning on at the winter tracks trying to make expenses in a daily struggle with the pikers. A few are running handbooks in this city on a small scale. At the Jockey Club's race courses last year their was no big betting, for the excellent reason that bank rolls were system and time.—New York Sun

HAVANA TRACK BEGINS TO DRY OUT.

Havana, Cuba, February 5.—There were evidences today that the Oriental Park track may soon be in better condition than at any time since the meeting of the Cuba-American Jockey Club opened. The course began to dry out, although it still is heavy. Manager Brown expects the arrival of about one hundred horses from New Orleans and Juarez in the near future.
